Happy Monday of Fast Week!

This is the week where I have to push myself... I will leave that right there!

I have been reading in Acts during this month of consecration and there is a verse that has jumped out at me a little differently this time. Acts 4:18-20, "And they called them in and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John replied, whether it is right before God to obey you rather than God, you decide, for it is impossible for us not to speak about what we have seen and heard."

There are always going to be people who don't understand why we, as believers, do what we do. Fasting for example seems weird to many people. But we have seen and heard. We feel an intense desire when we allow the Holy Spirit to take over. That's when we will want to speak, share and declare the name of Jesus.

This week I encourage you to remember what you have seen and heard. As you push through this week, listen, let the Holy Spirit speak. Let the Holy Spirit increase the desire in you to speak about what you have seen and heard. When the enemy comes at you with his shenanigans, speak the name of Jesus!

Much love to you Church Family!
